Theme of discussion: Know Your Rights – Against Social Discrimination

Topics Covered: Unit IV

Date and Time: 25.09.2025 & 09.45 A.M to 10.30 A.M

Course Outcome: CO4

- Topic Learning Outcome: TLO26
- Activity Chosen: Poster Design

Active Learning Best practices: Poster Design

Topic: Know Your Rights – Against Social Discrimination

Learning Outcomes:

- Awareness Building:

Students will gain in-depth knowledge of rights guaranteed under the Constitution and anti-discrimination laws.

- Creative Communication:

Students will learn to present legal and ethical concepts in visually appealing, easy-to-understand formats.

- Team Collaboration:

Students will collaborate to research, design, and refine posters, enhancing teamwork skills.

Procedure:

Introduction (5 minutes)

- Purpose: Explain the goal – to creatively raise awareness about rights against social discrimination.
- Instructions: Define “social discrimination” and highlight its forms (caste, gender, religion, disability, etc.).
- Setup: Provide materials (Digital design tools).
- Examples: Showing strong, socially impactful posters.

Preparation Phase (10 minutes)

- Each student selects one topic for their individual poster.
- Research Topics: Assign or allow students to choose focus areas:
 - Right to Equality (Articles 14–18 of the Constitution of India)
 - The Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act
 - Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act
 - Gender Equality laws
 - Workplace discrimination policies
- Guidelines: Encourage students to:
 - Research on their chosen topic
 - Use concise text and bold visuals.
 - Include slogans, statistics, and positive messages.
 - Avoid negative or divisive imagery.
 - Summarize the core rights and protections involved.

Poster Design Phase (20 minutes)

- Students design posters individually using digital tools.
- Poster should include:
 - A clear slogan or message
 - One or two legal facts/laws
 - Visuals or symbols to communicate the message.
 - (Optional) QR code/link to an awareness resource.

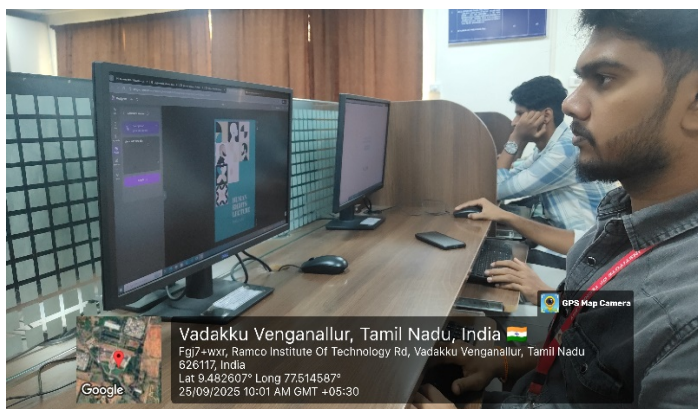

Presentation & Discussion (10 minutes)

- Students display their posters.
- Select students present their posters to the class.
- Others offer feedback on clarity, creativity, and message.

Wrap-Up (5 minutes)

- Summary: Highlight the most powerful messages and common themes across posters.
- Reflection: Students share how they can promote awareness of anti-discrimination rights in their communities.

Glimpses:

Reflective Report

Challenges & Strategies:

- Challenge: Oversimplification of complex legal concepts.
Strategy: Provide reference sheets with accurate, easy-to-read summaries of relevant laws.
- Challenge: Limited artistic skills in some students.
Strategy: Allow both digital and traditional poster formats; encourage focus on message clarity.

Observations:

- Students become more informed about legal protections against discrimination.
- Visual design helps in retention of key rights and laws.
- Peer review encourages improvement in communication style.

Student Response (Expected):

- Engaged Students: High creativity in designing posters with strong social messages.
- Assisted Learners: Teamwork enables students to contribute in roles beyond artistic design (research, slogan writing).
- Overall Enjoyment: Students enjoy blending creativity with social awareness.
