Innovative Practice Description

Unit : IV/ Event Processing with Apache Kafka
Course Outcome : CO 4
Learning Outcome : TLO 23
Activity Chosen : Collaborative learning
Time Allotted for the Activity : 15 minutes

Justification:

A collaborative (or cooperative) learning approach involves pupils working together on activities or learning tasks in a group small enough to ensure that everyone participates. Pupils in the group may work on separate tasks contributing to a common overall outcome, or work together on a shared task.

Details of the Implementation:

- Instructor organize the group each of four students.
- The students were tasked to discuss on the concepts of Events, Producers, Customers and Topics within Apache Kafka.
- The groups participated in active discussion, sharing their understanding of their given topics, and exploring different viewpoints.
- One student came from each group summarized the points and presented to the class.
- The course instructor assesses both individual and group performance, and evaluating the effectiveness of the collaborative learning process.

Benefit of the practice:

- This activity encourages teamwork and collaborate effectively within their groups.
- Discussing answers within group and come together with a conclusion.

Challenges faced in implementation:

- Some students find out the difficulties to express the key points in front of the class.
- Some students being more active and engaged than others.
- Time constraints for in-depth discussion and collaboration.
