

Department of Computer Science and Engineering
Academic Year 2022– 2023(Odd Semester)

Degree, Semester & Branch: B.E, V & EEE (A and B Section)

Course Code & Title: CS8392 & Object Oriented Programming

Name of the Faculty member (s): Dr. I Gethzi Ahila Poornima

Innovative Practice Description

- Unit / Topic: Unit II / Strings
- Course Outcome: CO 2
- Topic Learning Outcome: TLO 5
- Activity Chosen: Active Learning- Learning by Teaching
- Justification:

The students will benefit from working on Java projects that require additional string handling procedures if they are familiar with the String class and its accompanying methods. The students could use more online resources and be better comfortable with Java's String fundamentals by studying up before class.

- Time Allotted for the Activity: 30 Minutes
- Details of the Implementation:

Five days before the event, the students were informed about the topic and the event itself so they would have time to prepare. Two to three students from each section were chosen at random to present their topic on the board or using a power point show. Ms. V.Sabarisha, III EEE 'A', and Mr. R. Chandru, III EEE 'B' and explained about String class and its associated various string handling methods. Later Ms.P/Kayavizhi, III EEE 'A', Mr. S.Arun Kumar, III EEE 'A' and Mr.S.Vijay Anandh, III EEE 'B' explained sample program to illustrate various string handling methods. Figure 1 shows a few sample photographs taken during this event.

- Reflective Critique:

- ❖ Feedback of practice from students and other stakeholders:

- The practise made all of the students happy because it allowed them to thoroughly prepare for the subject.

- ❖ Benefit of the practice:

- By explaining the principles, they were able to retain this information effortlessly.
 - They were also well-prepared for any questions that might be raised throughout the session.

- ❖ Challenges faced in implementation:

- A very few pupils were reluctant to offer their views on stage.
