Innovative Practice Description

Unit / Topic: Unit II / Selection

Course Outcome: CO 2

Topic Learning Outcome: TLO6

Activity Chosen: Debate

Justification:

Debate

- A debate was conducted on the topic "Selection in HRM" to encourage students to understand and evaluate the various dimensions of recruitment and selection processes. Debate, as an interactive teaching methodology, was chosen for this topic to simulate real-world recruitment scenarios, where HR managers must make crucial decisions about selecting or rejecting candidates.
- Time Allotted for the Activity: 30 minutes

Details of the Implementation:

- The class was divided into two teams (Each team 10 Members):
 - Team A: Supported the selection of a candidate by presenting valid points on why the candidate should be hired.
 - Team B: Opposed the candidate's recruitment by highlighting reasons why the candidate may not be a suitable choice for the company.
- Students explored the requirements of the role and prepared their arguments based on industry best practices.
- Each team shared their arguments, clearly stating their position on the candidate.
- Both teams summarized their viewpoints and reinforced their arguments.
- After the debate, a discussion session was held where instructor provided feedback on the arguments presented and clarified concepts related to recruitment and selection.
