Renewable and Non- Renewable Energy. He also discussed about the world Energy Consumption rate with respect to time and various sources of energy such as Coal, Petroleum, Renewable sources, Thermal, Hydro etc., He told that as per India's Energy Scenario we have consumed 349288.22 MW per year as on as on 31.01.2019 that is 100% of our generated Energy. Generally we never runs out of Energy nor longed for Energy except some unavoidable situations. He also explained about the installed capacity with respect to thermal, hydro, nuclear and RES all over the India and their percentage with respect to the total installed capacity. He told that the world has consumed 60% of the total fossil fuel also within 50 – 80 years rapidly. It is because during that time Industrial revolution has been in peak.

He explained that the energy efficiency is what energy intensity in a specific product, process or area of production or consumption is reduced without affecting output, consumption or comfort levels. He explained about the components of Electrical billing. He broadly explained the challenges and opportunities in lighting systems, Electric motors, Energy efficient motors, Adjustable speed drives, reactive power consumption and power factor correction. He shared the ways to improve power factor so that we can achieve higher efficiency and benefits of power factor improvement. He also briefly explained about where to locate the capacitors and its suitable arrangements and reduction in distribution loss.

Finally he explained to the topics need of power quality, customer and utility perception of power quality. He insisted that power quality equals voltage quality and evaluation of power quality problems. He elaborated the Power Quality standards and their classifications, Harmonics, its effects and its classification. He also discussed some case study problems and its solutions.
