Activity on Factors affecting Entrepreneurial Motivation

Motivation is a key factor that always keeps an entrepreneur in his track towards attaining his goal. Achievement motivation always keeps the entrepreneur to bounce back whenever he / she faces a failure. Entrepreneurial motivation is classified as follows:

- Self-actualization
- Nature of work
- Autonomy and power motive
- Status motive
- Affiliation motive
- Deontic motive

In this activity, students were given 15 sets of question and were asked to give score on a scale of 5. (The details of score are given in work sheet attached below).

Each student has given score on scale of 5. Questions judge the motivation as follows:

Sl. No.	Types of Motivation	Questions
01	Self-actualization	1,2,3,4
02	Nature of work	5,6
03	Autonomy and power motive	7,8,9,10
04	Status motive	11,12
05	Affiliation motive	13,14
06	Deontic motive	15

Finally the students were asked to take the average of questions as grouped above on a scale of 5. They were able to self-assess which type of motivation they have more.

Note: This exercise was framed by referring book Entrepreneurial Development by SS Khanka

This activity helps in attaining the following CO – PO mapping:
